

Pennies for Progress Program Launches New Website

York, SC- The York County Pennies for Progress program launches new website- www.penniesforprogress.net. The new website aims to provide easily accessible information and resources to residents regarding the program and its projects.

The new website features a modern look that provides easy-to-use navigation. Additionally, the website provides two interactive GIS maps where residents can locate pennies projects to find out information about each project. Lastly, residents will find the new website makes it easy to stay up-to-date on information regarding the program and its projects.

“The County’s hope is that residents enjoy using the new website,” said Pennies for Progress Manager Patrick Hamilton. “The website features a fresh new look, updated Pennies information, easy-to-access project information, and a new interactive map for Pennies 4 projects.”

The new website features a responsive design which allows website visitors the optimum experience via tablet, phones and other devices. It can take up to 48 hours for the new website to populate, depending on the website visitors’ internet service provider. Most visitors will access the new website within a couple of hours.