Viewing professional, public displays is the safest way to enjoy fireworks. If you plan to celebrate with your own fireworks, follow these precautions.

Keep children away from fireworks
- Never place any part of your body over a firework
- Ignite fireworks outdoors
- Point fireworks away from people/animals
- Place used fireworks in a bucket of water
- Light fireworks one at a time
- Never experiment with making your own fireworks

How hot does a sparkler burn?

SPARKLERS BURN at 1200 F

- 1100 _______
- 1000 _______
- 900 _______ Glass melts at 900 F
- 800 _______
- 700 _______
- 600 _______
- 500 _______ Wood burns at 575 F
- 400 _______
- 300 _______ Cake bakes at 350 F
- 200 _______ Water boils at 212 F
- 100 _______
- 0 _______

Seek immediate medical attention for any fireworks related injury