

OCCUPATIONAL TRAINING: BLOODBORNE PATHOGENS

Name: _____

A copy of OSHA Bloodborne Pathogens Standards and an explanation of it were provided. Yes ___ No ___

General explanation of the epidemiology and symptoms of bloodborne diseases were covered. Yes ___ No ___

An explanation of the modes of transmission of bloodborne pathogens were covered. Yes ___ No ___

Exposure control plan and means of employee access were discussed. Yes ___ No ___

Methods of recognizing tasks and other activities that may involve exposure to bloodborne pathogens were discussed. Yes ___ No ___

Use and limitations of methods to prevent exposure including work practices, PPE, and engineering controls were discussed. Yes ___ No ___

Selection, use, location, removal, decontamination, and disposal of PPE were covered. Yes ___ No ___

Information on Hepatitis B vaccine including effacement, safety, administration benefits, and free offering were discussed. Yes ___ No ___

Emergency Action and procedures were covered. Yes ___ No ___

Exposure incident procedures including methods of reporting and medical follow-up were covered. Yes ___ No ___

Signs and labeling program were reviewed. Yes ___ No ___

Question and answer session was provided. Yes ___ No ___

Employee Signature _____ Date _____

Instructor Signature _____ Date _____