SECTION 12-37-224. Motor homes or trailers for recreational travel; boats or watercraft with certain features.
(A) A motor home or trailer used for camping and recreational travel that is pulled by a motor vehicle on which the interest portion of indebtedness is deductible pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code as an interest expense on a qualified primary or secondary residence also is a primary or secondary residence for purposes of ad valorem property taxation in this State. The fair market value of a motor home or trailer used for camping and recreational travel that is pulled by a motor vehicle classified for property tax purposes as a primary or secondary residence pursuant to this section must be determined in the manner that motor vehicles are valued for property tax purposes.

SECTION 12-37-800. Penalty for failure to list real or personal property; penalty for making false return, understating tax liability, or disregarding rules. (A) If a person fails to list the real or personal property required by law to be listed in any one year, the value of the property may be charged against the person for taxation with a ten percent penalty added, and the taxes and penalty collected as in other cases. Section 12-37-800. I declare that the above described property meets the above requirements and that I am claiming the interest portion of indebtedness (or if there is no indebtedness could have claimed the interest portion of indebtedness) pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code Publication 936 home Mortgage Interest Deduction and that said property secures the loan or would secure any loan on this property.
